UM TO HOST FAMILY WEEKEND OCT. 16-17

MISSOULA --

Grandparents, parents, brothers and sisters of University of Montana students will gather Friday, Oct. 16, and Saturday, Oct. 17, to learn more about UM during Family Weekend.

Some visitors will travel to Missoula from as far away as Maine, Massachusetts and California, says Parents Program Coordinator Mary Ann Campbell, who expects about 200 participants.

The program is sponsored by the UM Parents Association, housed in the Alumni Office. The event will feature Parents College classes -- open to all the visitors -- in arts and sciences, business administration, forestry, journalism, law and fine arts. Other highlights will include information sessions, a barbecue, a president's brunch and special prices for a play and Grizzly football game.

The full schedule follows:

Friday, Oct. 16

10 a.m.-2 p.m. -- Registration, Knowles Hall lounge. A list of fine arts Parents College classes will be posted.

10:10-11 a.m. -- Parents College class; Social Psychology (Psychology 350), Professor Frances Hill; Room 109 of the Chemistry-Pharmacy Building.
